

Alyssa is the daughter of Dave and Penny Jeffrey. She grew up in Oconto, Nebraska with her younger brother Austin and went to high school at Sumner-Eddyville-Miller. After graduating, Alyssa attended Iowa Western where she played collegiate volleyball as a defensive specialist for 2 ½ years. In the offseason, Alyssa coached club volleyball and has been coaching various ages of girls for the past eight years. From the time she was in junior high she knew she wanted to be a volleyball coach, and she loves sharing her passion for the game with others. Alyssa has been a part of the Kenesaw volleyball program for the past four years as an assistant coach. She is excited to see what the future holds for Kenesaw volleyball and the student athletes. Alyssa and her fiancé live in Kenesaw and love being part of the small community. Besides volleyball, Alyssa has a creative side and loves making crafts and decorations. She has also been busy planning her wedding. Fall is Alyssa's favorite time of year for three reasons: Volleyball, Husker Football and Deer Season!
